

IMMUNOCELLULAR THERAPEUTICS, LTD.
CHARTER OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

Adopted December 6, 2013

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of ImmunoCellular Therapeutics, Ltd. (the “Company”) shall be to act on behalf of the Board in fulfilling the Board’s responsibilities to oversee the Company’s compensation policies, plans and programs, and to review and determine the compensation to be paid to the Company’s executive officers, as well as to review and discuss with management the Company’s disclosures contained under the caption “Compensation Discussion and Analysis” (“CD&A”) for use in any of the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K (“Form 10-K”), registration statements, proxy statements or information statements and to prepare and review the Committee report on executive compensation included in the Company’s annual proxy statement in accordance with applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) in effect from time to time. The term “compensation” is intended to be construed broadly and includes salary, long-term incentives, bonuses, perquisites, equity incentives, severance arrangements, retirement benefits and other related benefits and benefit plans.

COMPOSITION

The Committee shall consist of at least two (2) members of the Board of Directors. All members of the Committee shall satisfy (i) the independence requirements of the NYSE Mkt LLC (“NYSE Mkt”) applicable to compensation committee members, as in effect from time to time, when and as required by NYSE Mkt, including any exceptions permitted by these requirements, (ii) the “non-employee director” standard within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended from time to time (the “Exchange Act”) and (iii) the “outside director” standard within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (the “Code”). The members of the Committee shall be appointed by and serve at the discretion of the Board. Vacancies occurring on the Committee shall be filled by the Board. The Committee’s chairperson shall be designated by the Board.

MEETINGS AND MINUTES

The Committee shall hold such regular or special meetings as its members deem necessary or appropriate. Minutes of each meeting of the Committee shall be prepared and distributed to the Board by the Secretary of the Company promptly after each meeting. The Committee shall report to the Board from time to time and whenever requested to do so by the Board.

AUTHORITY

The Committee shall have full access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Company as deemed necessary or appropriate by any member of the Committee to discharge his or her responsibilities hereunder, including human resources personnel preparing the CD&A for the Company's reports to be filed with the SEC. The Committee shall have the authority to obtain, at the expense of the Company, advice and assistance from internal or external legal, accounting or other advisors and consultants. In addition, the Committee shall have sole authority to retain and terminate any compensation consultant to assist in the evaluation of director, chief executive officer or senior executive compensation, including sole authority to approve such consultant's reasonable fees and other retention terms, all at the Company's expense. Other reasonable expenditures for external resources that the Committee deems necessary or appropriate in the performance of its duties are permitted. The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees as appropriate, including, but not limited to, a subcommittee composed of one or more members of the Board to grant stock awards under the Company's equity incentive plans to persons who are not (a) "Covered Employees" under Section 162(m) of the Code; (b) individuals with respect to whom the Company wishes to comply with Section 162(m) of the Code or (c) then subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act. The operation of the Committee shall be in accordance with the Bylaws of the Company as in effect from time to time and Section 141 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. The approval of this Compensation Committee Charter by the Board shall be construed as a delegation of authority to the Committee with respect to the responsibilities set forth herein.

RESPONSIBILITIES

In order to implement the Committee's purpose and policies, the Committee shall be charged with the following duties and responsibilities. The Committee may supplement and, except as otherwise required by applicable law or rule or the requirements of the NYSE Mkt, deviate from these activities as appropriate under the circumstances:

1. Overall Compensation Strategy and Philosophy. The Committee shall review, modify (as needed) and approve the overall compensation strategy and philosophy for the Company, including:
 - reviewing and approving corporate performance goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Company's officers (as that term is defined in Section 16 of the Exchange Act and Rule 16a-1 thereunder, referred to herein as "executive officers");
 - evaluating and recommending to the Board for approval the compensation plans and programs advisable for the Company, as well as evaluating and recommending to the Board for approval the modification or termination of existing plans and programs;
 - establishing policies with respect to equity compensation arrangements; and

- reviewing and approving the terms of any employment agreements, severance arrangements, change-of-control protections and any other compensatory arrangements (including, without limitation, perquisites and any other form of compensation) for the Company's executive officers.

2. Compensation of Chief Executive Officer.

The Committee, either as a committee, or together with the other independent directors of the Company (as determined by the Board), shall determine and approve the compensation and other terms of employment of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and shall evaluate the Chief Executive Officer's performance in light of relevant corporate performance goals and objectives.

In determining the long-term incentive component of the Chief Executive Officer's compensation, the Committee should consider the Company's overall performance, the value of similar incentive awards given to chief executive officers of comparable companies, the awards given to the Company's Chief Executive Officer in past years, and such other criteria as the Committee deems advisable.

3. Compensation of Other Executive Officers. The Committee shall review with the Chief Executive Officer the individual and corporate performance goals and objectives of the Company's other executive officers that are periodically established. The Committee shall determine and approve the compensation and other terms of employment of these executive officers, taking into consideration the executive officer's success in achieving his or her individual performance goals and objectives and the corporate performance goals and objectives deemed relevant to the officer as established by the Committee.

4. Administration of Compensation Plans and Programs. The Committee shall recommend to the Board the adoption, amendment and termination of the Company's equity plans, pension and profit sharing plans, incentive plans, bonus plans, stock purchase plans, deferred compensation plans and other compensation programs. The Committee shall have full power and authority to administer these plans and programs, establish guidelines, interpret plan documents, select participants, approve grants and awards, and exercise such other power and authority as may be permitted or required under such plans.

5. Compensation Discussion and Analysis. The Committee shall review and discuss with management the Company's disclosures contained under the caption "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" for use in the Company's Form 10-K, registration statements, proxy statements or information statements and make recommendations to the Board that the CD&A be approved for inclusion in the Company's Form 10-K, registration statements, proxy statements or information statements.

6. Committee Report. The Committee shall prepare and review the Committee report on executive compensation to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement in accordance with applicable SEC rules and regulations.

7. Insurance Coverage. The Committee shall review and establish appropriate insurance coverage for the Company's directors and executive officers.

8. Annual Charter Review. The Committee shall review and assess the adequacy of this charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
